parent/guardian permission and conduct/medical release:

I authorize the workshop participant listed to participate in the Yearbooks Northwest workshop from Aug 4-6, 2026. I authorize the staff, faculty, yearbook representatives, to seek competent medical help or hospital attention if the workshop participant needs it.

I understand that every reasonable precaution will be taken by the staff, faculty, yearbook representatives, to ensure the safety of the workshop participant, and I will hold harmless West Linn High School, Varsity Yearbooks Inc., Yearbooks Northwest LLC, Varsity Yearbook agents, the workshop directors or any member of the staff or faculty, yearbook representatives, dormitory counselors and college personnel responsible for any accidents or for personal injury or for theft or for damage to personal property or for any other reason whatsoever. In addition, I authorize the use of the participant's name and/or image in Yearbooks Northwest printed and electronic promotions.

The staff of Yearbooks Northwest endeavors to maintain a pleasant, safe and easygoing learning environment during the workshop. Delegates are expected to act maturely and responsibly and to treat one another with dignity and respect.

Guidelines for acceptable behavior parallel the codes of conduct students are subject to in their own home schools, including, but not limited to, the following: No illegal drugs, alcohol or cigarettes are to be brought to or consumed on the premises.

Yearbooks Northwest is not responsible and assumes no liability for the theft, loss or destruction of personal property, including but not limited to photography and computer equipment.

Violation of these rules, or of any rule implied by the general codes of conduct in area public and private schools, will result in immediate suspension from the workshop. By signing below, the participant and his or her parent or guardian signify they have read, understand and agree to the above.
