I authorize the workshop participant listed to participate in the Yearbooks Northwest workshop 2023. I authorize the staff, faculty and yearbook representatives of the workshop to seek competent medical help or hospital attention if the workshop participant needs it.

I understand that every reasonable precaution will be taken by the staff, faculty and yearbook representatives to ensure the safety of the workshop participant, and I will hold harmless Herff Jones Inc., Yearbooks Northwest LLC, the high school hosting the workshop, Herff Jones agents, the workshop directors or any member of the staff or faculty and yearbook representatives responsible for any accidents or for personal injury or for theft or for damage to personal property or for any other reason whatsoever. In addition, I authorize the use of the participant's name and/or image in Yearbooks Northwest printed and electronic promotions.

The staff of Yearbooks Northwest endeavors to maintain a pleasant, safe and easygoing learning environment during the workshop. Delegates are expected to act maturely and responsibly and to treat one another with dignity and respect. Guidelines for acceptable behavior parallel the codes of conduct students are subject to in their own home schools, including, but not limited to, the following: No illegal drugs, alcohol or cigarettes are to be brought to or consumed on the premises. Rowdy behavior, destruction of property, any form of harassment or vulgar language are not tolerated. The campus will remain "closed" for the duration of the workshop. The parking lot and individual cars are considered off limits. Visitors to the workshop are not permitted without advanced approval from the Yearbooks Northwest directors.

Yearbooks Northwest is not responsible and assumes no liability for the theft, loss or destruction of personal property, including but not limited to photography and computer equipment.

Violation of these rules, or of any rule implied by the general codes of conduct in area public and private schools, will result in immediate suspension from the workshop. If participant did not drive themselves, parents will be notified as soon as possible and instructed to come to the facility to escort the workshop participant home immediately at the parents' expense. No refunds will be given.

By signing below, the participant and his or her parent or guardian signify they have read, understand and agree to the above.
